

Sun-Sentinel

SOCIETY Scene

Wednesday, February 1, 2012

Junior Achievement celebrates philanthropic business leaders

Junior Achievement of South Florida recently announced the honorees for the "JA South Florida Business Hall of Fame" celebration, an annual event that recognizes successful business leaders and entrepreneurs who have made a positive impact in their communities.

This year's "Dream Team" laureates are Ron Bergeron, Andy Cagnetta, Gerry Greenspoon and Mike Jackson.

"The Hall of Fame reception provides a wonderful opportunity to honor several remarkable business people," said President of Junior Achievement of South Florida, Melissa Aiello.

"JA's core purpose is modeled by the 'Hall of Fame Laureates', as we encourage and prepare our children to be productive, fulfilled and responsible citizens. Each honoree has made an indelible impression on the business world both for their professional success as well as their philanthropic commitment."

Laureates are selected by previous honorees and exemplify the height of business achievement, excellence, vision, innovation and community responsibility.

The event, chaired by Tom and Maureen Shea, will be held at the Junior Achievement (JA) World Huizenga Center at Broward College on Feb. 9 beginning at 5:30 p.m.

JA of South Florida provides quality, free enterprise education programs to the young people of Broward and South Palm Beach counties.

The 59,500 square foot facility is dedicated to the effective and practical teaching of business, entrepreneurship and personal finance.

For more information, call Anna Parker at 954-979-7116. ■

Below: Jason Welch, left, Max Wank, Lauren Quintana, Gerry Greenspoon, Maureen Shea, Emily Hollander, Tom Shea and Caroline Haight

Above: Miles Dickens, left, Alexis Genzone and Ron Bergeron

At right: Mike Jackson, back left, and Andy Cagnetta; Emma Parker, front left, William Morrall and Regan Morrall

At left: Jason Welch, left, Mike Jackson, Melissa Aiello and Andy Cagnetta

Photos submitted